

Alina Antonie joins DLA Piper's Competition Department as Counsel

As of March 2023, DLA Piper's Bucharest office recruits Alina Antonie as Counsel in the Competition team. In her new position, she will support the department's growing efforts to assist clients in dealing with their legal needs, always adding a human touch.

Alina is a highly experienced competition lawyer, with over 20 years of experience in different industries, strong knowledge and understanding of various sectors.

Blending analytical and interpersonal skills, she has been involved in advising clients and managing diverse teams and cultures, whilst sustaining compliance with laws and regulations in industries such as healthcare, IT&C, environmental, real estate and others.

In relation to this step in her career, Alina commented: "It is great to be part of DLA Piper's Romanian office and I feel I can bring a significant contribution here. Driving new business to our team, as well as continuing to support existing clients, is something of a personal goal, and I am convinced that we will be able to retain our position as leading legal services provider."

Alina is keen to enlarge her skill set and to continue to make significant contribution within legal and compliance consultancy.
