

CEE Attorneys / Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații Strengthens Its Corporate / M&A Practice with Madalina Ivan Joining the Team

CEE Attorneys / Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații announced that Madalina Ivan joined the Corporate / M&A Practice as a Managing Associate.

Madalina has over 12 years of practice, focusing on corporate, M&A, capital markets and employment law. Madalina has been involved in complex M&A transactions, in industries such as banking and finance, FMCG, energy and retail.

Madalina successfully assisted clients in acquisitions, as well as on implementing mergers plans, corporate restructurings and business transfers. Madalina has assisted various issuers and shareholders on regulations specific to capital markets: corporate governance, public offerings, shareholders' rights, squeeze-out procedures and delisting. She also advises corporations and entrepreneurs on all aspects of individual and collective labour law, including sensitive matters in relation to lay-offs, restructuring or outsourcing, as well as in relation to employees' benefits plan and transfer of employees.

"I am very excited about this collaboration, especially since I have the chance to work with extraordinary people and like-minded professionals, with whom I share the same business vision. I am confident that we'll make a stronger team together and that we have all the resources to optimally manage large local and cross-border projects", says Madalina Ivan.

"Madalina is a great asset to our team, especially during these uncertain times when the best legal solutions are those adapted to the context, the companies' needs and their budgets. Her diverse portfolio of clients, including large multinationals and local entrepreneurs, reflect both her industry expertise and her specialisation in corporate/M&A, capital markets and employment law", believes Nicolae Ursu, Partner with CEE Attorneys / Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații.
