

Brokerage market, up by over 9% in first 9 months to 5.77bn lei

Gross premiums sold by general insurance and life insurance brokerage companies stood at 5.77 billion lei in the first nine months, up 9.2% from the same period of the previous year, according to a release from the Financial Supervisory Authority (ASF).

The share of revenues from the distribution activity in the volume of premiums distributed at the level of the insurance brokerage market was of 17.64% (average commission), on the segment of the general insurance it was 16.63%, and on the segment of the life insurance - 45.21%.