

Suciu | The Employment Law Firm has announced promotion of Teodora Manaila to Senior Associate, effective January 1

Teodora has been working for Suciu | The Employment Law Firm for more than one year and has been an invaluable member of our team.

Her performance as an employment and data protection lawyer has been influential for prompt and excellent client problem resolution. The quality of dedication and client satisfaction is very important for the law firm's long-term success. Teodora is also appreciated for her ability to be a committed team player.

Andreea Suciu, Managing Partner: "I take this opportunity to congratulate Teodora on her new promotion and wish her best of luck in her new position."

Teodora Manaila: „I am very grateful for the trust and recognition shown by Andreea and the team of Suciu | The Employment Law Firm.

At the same time, I acknowledge that this new position will challenge me with different and more complex projects. I am more determined and engaged to continue our practice with the same enthusiasm and client-oriented solutions.“

Suciu | The Employment Law Firm is a boutique multi-lingual firm (Romanian, English and German) dedicated to excel at developing creative, practical solutions to today's most complex and sophisticated employment law issues.
