

CEE Attorneys/ Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații Advises Sparking Capital in the Financing Granted to Bankata.ro

The law firm of CEE Attorneys/Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații advised Sparking Capital, the lead investor who coordinated the EUR 180.000 financing to Bankata.ro - a digital platform that analyses and objectively compares all the banking products available to customers in Romania. Bankata.ro includes information and analysis about credit cards, investment accounts, personal loans, mortgages and real estate and will add to its portfolio the services of digital banks and international payment platforms.

The CEE Attorneys/Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații team was made up of Sergiu Gîdei (partner and project coordinator) and Elena Șopotean (senior associate).

„We chose CEE Attorneys/Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații both for their know-how in the field of start-up and technology and due to a highly experienced team of lawyers in financing and banking law. It is the eighth project we work on together and, as usual, we appreciate the partnership with the firm and the genuine added value we receive during each collaboration”, said Cristian Negruțiu, founder of Sparking Capital.

„The fact that Sparking Capital has become, in recent years, one of the most active investment funds in Romania, makes us believe even more in the high potential of tech start-ups not only locally, but also in the region. Romania is now among the most attractive hubs in Central and Eastern Europe – which is demonstrated by the international funds’ interest in Romanian start-ups, given their contribution to the digitization of areas such as banking, retail, marketing or agribusiness”, added Sergiu Gîdei.

CEE Attorneys/Boanța, Gîdei și Asociații is a Romanian law firm with diverse expertise and practice, providing legal assistance in all areas of business law, with a strong focus on commercial litigation, real estate, corporate/M&A, banking and finance, IT/technology.
