

NNDKP assists Transcarpatica in the sale of Someg Gherla to the German group LKE

NNDKP has successfully assisted Transcarpatica S.A., an important Romanian steel producer, in the complex transaction consisting in selling the ownership interests held in Someg Gherla to the LKE Group, a German supplier of handling and logistic products and systems.

NNDKP was involved in all the stages of this transaction, which also included an initial restructuring procedure in respect of the company's assets.

Following the transaction resulting in the takeover of the Romanian metal structures manufacturer Someg, the LKE Group will relocate its China-based plant to Cluj.

The NNDKP team involved in this transaction was coordinated by Ciprian Paun, Partner and co-head of NNDKP's Cluj-Napoca office, who worked together with Ștefania Vecerdeea, Bianca Chirila and Diana Feldrihan, Senior Associates and members of the NNDKP Cluj-Napoca office.

“This transaction entailed a comprehensive process of negotiating and defining the shared interests of the parties, and had a complex schedule, which we managed to cover together, in a short time. We are proud to have contributed to this significant project that acknowledges the quality and potential of the Romanian metallurgical industry. I am pleased that, with this transaction, the dream and vision of the founding shareholders will evolve towards a new success story. I would like to thank the entire NNDKP team for their sustained effort, as well as all the interested parties for our very good cooperation”, Ciprian Paun stated.

NNDKP's Cluj-Napoca office was set up in 2011 and has contributed to an increased efficiency of the integrated legal and tax services provided to clients, including through substantial knowledge of the economic and social particularities of the region.
