

Stratulat Albulescu further strengthens its Dispute Resolution Group and, in particular its Tax Litigation Practice, with the appointment of Luiza Ionescu-Donoiu as Counsel

With 15 years' experience in disputes, Luiza's practice focuses on tax, employment disputes and environmental disputes. She has extensive experience in advising in tax audits from inception, through administrative phase and up to a final ruling in the challenge.

She joins from the legal arm of a Big Four where she successfully led an ample and interdisciplinary portfolio, rendering timely and again rigorous legal advice and representation in front of all Romanian Court of Law and competent authorities.

Prior to this, Luiza was at a Magic Circle law firm (Clifford Chance Badea) and also at one of the highest ranked Romanian law firms (NNDKP), where she built a strong professional background in disputes and arbitration.

Clients describe Luiza as a trusted adviser and as a sharp lawyer, rendering timely and original ideas and strategies.

Managing Partner Silviu Stratulat comments: "We are delighted to welcome Luiza! Many of our clients have very significant interests in tax related and there is a strong need for a high-calibre dispute resolution practitioner to support them. Luiza is a leading litigator who has advised her clients on a wide range of complex disputes. Her local market knowledge, expertise, and experience will add bench strength to the firm's existing capabilities and enable our team to better service our clients in the region."

Luiza is also a constant contributor to legal papers, publishing quite a few articles on tax law, as well as civil procedure law.
