

RTPR advises Romcim on the acquisition of Bauelemente, with Schoenherr advising on merger clearance and FDI

RTPR has assisted Romcim SA in relation to the acquisition of Bauelemente Reinvest SRL and its fully owned subsidiary, Bauelemente SRL, the market leader manufacturer of prefabricated reinforced and prestressed concrete in Romania. Romcim, part of the CRH Group, is one of the largest suppliers of cement, aggregates and concrete for the construction sector in Romania. With this transaction, Romcim adds three production facilities to its Romanian business, located in Bolintin Deal (Giurgiu), Cristian (Sibiu), and Arcestii Rahtivani (Prahova).

Schoenherr advised Romcim on the FDI filing and obtaining merger clearance from the Romanian competition authority in connection with the transaction.

The RTPR team that provided advice on this project was coordinated by Mihai Ristici (Partner) and Cezara Urzica (Managing Associate), and further included Diana Dimitriu, Ana Maria Barbu (Senior Associates), Andrei Tosa, Codrina Simionescu (Managing Associates), Serban Halmagean (Associate), Flavia Mincu, Filip Marinaiu, Irina Marinescu, Maria Luca and George Capota (Junior Associates).
