

Bondoc și Asociații announces 5 new promotions within its team of lawyers, including 1 partner

Law firm Bondoc și Asociații SCA is pleased to announce 5 promotions following its annual professional evaluations. Thus, Daniela Gladunea has been promoted to Partner, Razvan Agarici, Oana Danila and Mihai Vlasceanu have been advanced to Managing Associate, while Matei Vilcov has been promoted to Senior Associate.

Lucian Bondoc, Managing Partner of the law firm says that "the promotions reflect, in the case of each of our colleagues who have been advanced, both their growth in professional experience and their contribution to the activity of the departments in which they have been actively involved.

The new partner position also reflects the significant contribution brought by Daniela, to the development and management of our Employment Department.

All the B&A lawyers boast a top legal expertise and have had a major contribution to the management of our projects. In the forthcoming years, our firm will continue to apply the same approach, where meritocratic and equitable recognition of expertise and of the special contribution to our common success goals plays a major role."

With its 10 partners and almost 40 lawyers, covering 20 areas of expertise, Bondoc și Asociații is one of the most dynamic law firms involved in complex projects on the market.
