

Kinstellar advises Agrotex majority shareholders on the sale of a significant stake to Promat Comimpex

KINSTELLAR

Kinstellar has advised the majority shareholders of Agrotex (one of the most important suppliers of cereals and agricultural inputs on the local market) on the sale of a significant stake to Promat Comimpex, a renowned agriculture player now controlled by the Ameropa Group.

The deal will complete after the necessary consents and approvals have been obtained.

Kinstellar's assistance on this mandate was coordinated by Zsuzsa Csiki (Partner, Head of Corporate M&A in Romania) together with Madalina Perțe (Managing Associate) and involved a very talented and resilient team: Claudia Popescu (Special Counsel) and Ioana Popescu (Associate).

Kinstellar Romania has emerged as a premier legal advisor in the agribusiness sector. Kinstellar's exceptional offering combines sector-specific knowledge, transactional experience, and commercial expertise, enabling us to handle landmark transactions effectively and with high proficiency. Our dedicated team has guided international companies and local entrepreneurs through a wide range of transactions in this field, including market entry, joint ventures, private equity deals, business transfers, restructurings, and day-to-day matters, as the case may be.

The law firm continue to advise on some of the largest and most significant transactions in the agribusiness sector – two other deals are in progress now – while tackling several other very exciting transactions with a strong and professional team whose focus is aligned with the client's interest.