About the team

In our Dispute Resolution practice, our combined tax and legal expertise allows us to defend our Clients' interest in the most complex tax and administrative, commercial, competition or employment litigation cases. With respect to the tax and administrative litigation, our tax and legal team work together from the initial stages of a tax dispute, usually a tax audit, covering both the legal and tax matters of the case. With respect to the commercial litigation, we assist our Clients in business-related disputes relating to recovery of commercial debts, corporate conflicts, enforcement proceedings, breach of contractual provisions. We are also representing our clients in competition and employment litigation.

Our combined expertise brings new and innovative solution in court to respond to our client's needs.

Our team is comprised of experienced and dedicated lawyers who have assisted Clients in various proceedings before all levels of jurisdiction throughout the country.
