

CMS advises Ahold Delhaize on the completion of the landmark acquisition of Profi Rom Food in Romania

CMS has advised Ahold Delhaize on the completion of its acquisition of leading Romanian grocery retailer Profi Rom Food SRL from MidEuropa, in a transaction worth approximately EUR 1.3bn. The deal was signed and announced in October 2023 and has recently received the approval of the Romanian Competition Council.

Ahold Delhaize is one of the world's largest food retail groups and a leader in both supermarkets and e-commerce. The group owns 16 local brands and over 7,700 local stores, serving over 63 million shoppers every week in Europe, the United States and Asia.

Managing Partner of CMS Romania and Head of CEE Corporate M&A Horea Popescu says, “We are delighted to have been at Ahold Delhaize’s side throughout this acquisition, and to assist the team to reach completion. Our role on this transaction underscores yet again the strength of our expertise in managing such complex projects. This landmark deal sends a strong signal that the Romanian food retail market continues to attract large investors.”

Senior Counsel of CMS Romania Claudia Nagy adds: “It’s been a privilege to work together with the teams within Ahold Delhaize and Mega Image to close this complex acquisition. Our unrivalled multidisciplinary know-how and expertise means that we were ideally placed to deliver comprehensive legal support and ensure that our client achieves their business objective.”

The multidisciplinary CMS team advising Ahold Delhaize was led by Horea Popescu and Claudia Nagy (Corporate and M&A) on Romanian law matters and Eva Talmacsi (Corporate and M&A, CMS UK) on English law matters, with invaluable support from partner Roxana Fratila (Real Estate), and counsel Raluca Ionescu (Corporate and M&A).

The wider team included more than 10 other lawyers from the Romanian and UK offices.
