

Kinstellar announces recent promotions across multiple service lines in the Bucharest office, including a Partner appointment

Kinstellar announces a recent series of promotions within the Bucharest office. These promotions underscore the firm’s commitment to recognising and rewarding team members who have excelled in developing their practices, shown independence in managing complex matters, and made significant contributions to serving clients’ needs.

Promotion to Partner

The firm announced the promotion to Partner of Magdalena Raducanu. Magdalena leads the Romanian Banking & Finance Service Line and also serves as co-head of the same firm-wide practice. With more than 20 years of experience in all aspects of banking and finance—including project, real estate and corporate finance, as well as financial regulatory matters—she brings a wealth of knowledge and strategic insight to the firm. Recently, she has dedicated significant effort to advising banks on ESG-related mandates.

Magdalena joined Kinstellar in 2021 from the Bucharest office of another international firm. Since joining the local banking practice, she has advised or coordinated banking mandates in the amount of EUR 4 billion. She is consistently ranked as a leading lawyer for Banking & Finance in Romania by international legal directories, with clients praising her “excellent knowledge in the field of banking law, offering the right solutions for situations with a high level of complexity,” and noting that “she is technically brilliant, with a clear understanding of the legal issues, but also cognisant of the broader commercial picture.”

Her promotion reflects not only her exceptional legal capabilities and dedication to client service but also her ongoing leadership within the firm.

“Our firm thrives on the dedication and talent of our team. These recent promotions are not only milestones in our colleagues’ professional journeys, but also affirmations of their growing leadership and integral roles within our office. We are truly proud of their achievements and look forward to their continued success and contributions.”
