

Duțescu & Partners and Legal70, strategic alliance for international business growth across Romania, Spain, the UAE and beyond

Duțescu & Partners, a full-service Romanian law firm internationally ranked for its legal expertise celebrates its partnership with Legal70, a leading multidisciplinary legal consultancy with a strong presence in Spain and across Europe.

This partnership is aimed at addressing cross-border legal and business matters, being designed to support international clients at every stage of investment and expansion in Europe, the Middle East and beyond.

“As part of our cross-border legal alliance, we provide integrated legal services to support international investors, businesses and entrepreneurs with market entry, corporate structuring, finance, immigration, real estate, commercial transactions, dispute resolution, compliance and private client matters across Romania, Spain, the UAE and other key jurisdictions.” (Helen Pino Vera – Founder of Legal70)

“International clients choose our alliance for its recognized expertise in cross-border legal matters, seamless coordination across jurisdictions and deep understanding of Islamic finance and Middle Eastern markets. With direct involvement from senior legal professionals and multilingual capabilities, we provide practical and consistent legal solutions to support investment and business growth in Romania, Spain, the UAE and beyond. Whether you’re a foreign investor entering Romania, a business expanding into Spain, or an entrepreneur navigating regulatory systems in the UAE, our alliance ensures tailored, efficient, and forward-thinking legal support.” (Casiana Dusa – Partner at Duțescu & Partners)
