

LegiTeam: Lawyer - Tax Controversy and Tax Litigation | Reff & Associates

Reff & Associates is looking for lawyers to join our Tax Controversy and Tax Litigation practice.

Who we are looking for

- Fully qualified lawyer member of the Bar;
- 2 - 4 years' experience in litigation (experience in tax litigation is a plus);
- Sound legal reasoning, thoroughness, very good legal writing skills;
- Fluency in written/spoken English is a must, any other foreign language is an advantage;
- Team player, efficient, good communicator, flexible and adaptable.

Your future role

As a lawyer in our team:

- You will join a dynamic and competitive environment, which preserves an uniquely collegial culture and considers work/life balance as a strategic priority. With a high year on year business growth rate, Reff & Associates offers distinctive accelerated career progression opportunities in an international environment.
- As member of a team highly prized and recognized for its involvement in tax controversy and tax litigation, you will be involved in complex and interesting projects, assisting sophisticated clients.
- You may also get the opportunity to take a leading role in complex projects, including in cases involving multidisciplinary teams, where you can broaden your legal expertise by interacting with other tax and legal professionals.
- Last but not least, you will become part of a team where we believe that success is measured in the long run and therefore we approach relationships with a desire to build long-lasting partnerships. We enjoy a remarkable long-term trust from clients and commitment from colleagues. We seek balance and sustainability in everything we do and have grown profitably while constantly investing in our people, nurturing new relationships in the market and contributing to various initiatives of the business community. We believe most strongly in integrity, loyalty, and commitment towards clients and colleagues.
