

SUCIU - THE EMPLOYMENT LAW FIRM JOINS ELLINT

Following on from another successful year, specialist employment and labor law firm network ELLINT is pleased to announce its expansion into Romania with the entry of new member, Suciú – The Employment Law Firm.

Based in Bucharest, the boutique multi-lingual firm (Romanian, English and German), recently featured in Romania's leading legal guide Which Lawyer, is led by founder and Partner Andreea Suciú. The firm's clients include multinationals, large and medium-sized family businesses as well as international investors from various industries such as real estate and construction, healthcare, pharma, retail, manufacturing, oil and gas as well as IT and outsourcing.

Before setting up Suciú – The Employment Law Firm, Andreea worked for one of Germany's leading independent law firms managing its Bucharest Employment, Pensions and Data Protection team where The Legal 500 recommended her for her work advising on sensitive litigation and senior level departures.

Andreea Suciú, the Managing Partner of Suciú – The Employment Law Firm, said: “We are very excited to have joined ELLINT. This step is in line with our aim to strengthen our position in the international market. The network will not only enable the exchange of valuable know-how with expert peers but also facilitate the collaboration on joint cross-border projects. Furthermore, it provides our associates with the opportunity to gather international experience through secondments to ELLINT's member law firms.”

Darren Clayton, ELLINT Chairman and Doyle Clayton's Senior Partner, said: “ELLINT has a well-established base of members in western Europe. We've been looking to expand our footprint into eastern Europe for some time given the importance of that market. Andreea Suciú is a dynamic and enterprising lawyer and her firm's ethos and approach is a very good fit for ELLINT. We are delighted to welcome Suciú – The Employment Law Firm into the organisation”.
